Action point: 1.4 Unlocking Potential: Increasing youth mentoring provision in Ely & Caerau

What have you done?

Engaged with Cardiff Youth Services and One Million Mentors (1MM) to develop programme specifically for young people in Ely & Caerau, looking at mentoring young people in North Ely, Trelai and Caerau youth provisions.

- 9 mentors signed up to 1MM and accessing training
- 5 young people engaged with the mentoring programme in North Ely
- Only 2 continued with the programme

Next steps/Legacy?

- There have been challenges re mentoring young people outside of school hours so we are reviewing this currently. Young people have fed back that they want to use their leisure time for socialising etc so we are reviewing going forward.
- Additional resource needs to be identified to support the delivery of mentoring programmes with our most vulnerable young people.
- Additional training programmes for mentoring – 1MM had some challenges during the year with staff leaving.
- Some challenges include the processing of DBS checks, consistency of UP and mentors turning up, identifying additional capacity to support the programme.
- We are reviewing this with 1MM and CYS to understand best way forward & exploring group youth mentoring

"I enjoyed the mentoring as got to support my mentee and support them to develop soft skills like communication. We explored learning opportunities that could support my mentee. We also explored ways of improving themselves and be able to offer them advice and guidance"

Dan Mansell, Department of Science, Innovation & Technology, Civil Service

Mentor

- 2 Young people progressing with mentoring in North Ely Activity Centre
- 2 Mentors delivering mentoring 2 hours a month for 6 months
- Additional 7 mentors signed up to 1MM platform and going through training ready to be matched in new year with a mentee.
- Due to exam or school pressure some mentees disengaged with the programme
- Some mentees reported they wanted to use their social time to socialise and not be mentored

...Mentoring is a fantastic way to support young people in our most disadvantaged areas but in order to explore this further there needs to be additional resource allocated to mentoring programmes. There are so many challenges in regards to DBS checks, safeguarding, identifying spaces to support mentors and mentees.

On the second day of action there appeared to be a significant reduction in illegal vehicle use in the area.

This has been attributed to the community use of FedSpotter which has likely discouraged and disrupted riders once they are aware of the multi-agency presence.

Following the implementation of various information and awareness documents around reporting nuisance vehicles, there has been a considerable increase of reports made about nuisance vehicles in both Ely and Caerau in the period of September – February 23/24, compared to 24/25.

In 23/24 there were no reports made in Ely, in 24/25 there were more than 20. In 23/24 there were less than 5 reports made in Caerau, in 24/25 there were more than 20.

While some of this can be attributed to partnership reports, there is still increased reporting from residents, indicating that that the campaigns have been effective.

Highlight

Working with coach Mark and Caerau Ely ABC has been a fantastic opportunity for young people in Ely & Caerau who have been excluded, are EOTAS, or at risk of school exclusion.

The 10 sessions have given young people an opportunity to meet positive role models, engage in disciplined physical activity and work with youth workers. 6 of the young people who have attended the project are now receiving 121 youth mentoring support through Cardiff youth service, further improving their outcomes and reducing their risk of ASB.

One young person said 'Thanks for recommending the boxing I really enjoyed it. The skipping rope was annoying but I stuck with it and got the hang of the rest of the exercises. I'll definitely go again.'

Action point: 2.6 Visible and connected local policing through community & school partnerships

What have you done?

- Police Youth Volunteers (PYVs)

The Ely-based Police Youth Volunteers (PYV) group was launched at St Vincent's Church in Ely in April 2024 meeting every Friday.

- Mini Police

Mini Police initiative has been up and running since Sept 23. These have been held across 7 primary schools.

In February 2024, Windsor Clive Primary School was selected as a finalist for the National Crimebeat Awards in London.

How many people have benefitted?

- 15 young people have been recruited into the Ely PYV's. More than half from Ely/Caerau area.
- The Mini police have held over 50 sessions across the 7 primary schools.
- The three PACT meetings held in January were well attended and a number of community issues were discussed.
- The Ely 'South Wales Listens' survey saw 361 adult responses and 233 from young people

Next steps/Legacy?

The recent PYV attestation has seen a number of new volunteers being sworn in. We will look to continue to expand the Hub and encourage further young people from Ely to join.

PCSO's are now imbedded in all of the local schools. This has seen improved relationships with pupils and staff and will increase trust and confidence in the community.

PACT meetings are now set up and next steps will be to increase attendances from the community.

Highlight

Three separate PACT (Partnerships and Communities Together) meetings were held in January 2025 for Ely, Michaelston, and Caerau, with plans for further meetings in May 2025.

In addition to PACT, since November 2023, a bi-monthly multi-agency ASB meeting has been taking place specifically covering ASB problem solving for Ely and Caerau.

A significant part of the Ely and Caerau Community plan was to develop and improve relationships between SWP and the young people in the community.

The initiatives detailed under this action point have seen the creation of the PYV HUB and the roll out of the mini police. The regular presence of PCSO in schools has no doubt assisted in the further recruitment into the HUB.

The continued use of PACT will see us continue to push out messaging to the community whilst listening to and acting on local concerns and issues.

Following all the good work by South Wales Police and Cardiff Council's Curriculum team, the Mini Police (Heddlu Bach) programme was one of just 6 finalists for the National Crimebeat Award. A full article on the work can be found at:

Action point: 3.6 (a) Improving our Green Spaces & Parks: Improvements for Mill Road Recreation Ground & Archer Road

What have you done?

Installation of two stone paths will ensure and encourage safe access into the park, where the terrain has sometimes hindered people entering the park.

Installation of park benches

Removal of conifer trees designated dead, dying and/or diseased, along one perimeter fence because they posed a risk to park users and have been a long-term focus for arson and anti-social behaviour.

Repainting of the park gates - Parks Services have made minor repairs to and repainted the main vehicle access gate and smaller pedestrian gate into the park.

How many people have benefitted?

Parks Services will monitor these paths as to their impact on how the park is and will be used.

Parks Services will monitor these benches to how they are used and whether they deter or encourage anti-social behaviour.

which is the greatest feeling and everyone
struggling deserves to feel that too

Of 12 young people referred 6 have achieved positive outcomes in all areas, 3 young people who were unable to fully engage enough to provide evidenced outcomes received 106 meaningful contacts and were signposted to community resources and services, the other 3 were not suitable or not ready to engage at all.

Within the positive outcomes 1 young person has begun volunteering and another has received important bus work to increase confidence and enable mobility in the community, removing barriers to access. 1 young person will be accessing a confidence building course in the spring of 2025 and is thinking about undertaking a carpentry course and we have been able to support another young person to improve communication and relationships with her family. Engaging young people to access appropriate mental health support has also been a key feature of delivery.

Quotes from Young People

'Finding out the service isn't going to continue is so frustrating I don't think there has been a service that's helped me enough as much as Barnardo's'.

'I have improved so much more than I could imagine and I'm worried I won't find a service that's helped me as much as Barnardo's'

"The motivation I need to tell myself that all these things that I am feeling and that I go through are important and that leaving myself to rot essentially is not gonna help nobody, so I need to get out there and do things I'm not comfortable with, speak to people I don't want to speak to, be in places that are overwhelming and I can't deal with because I wanna have and I feel like I'm getting that confidence to actually speak up for what I think I need."

"Instead of waking up and feeling life is hopeless, and there is no point, I can be able to say, you know what, there are things that can help me there are people who I can trust and I can live with, there are people I can love and there are experiences I can like that are new."

"I'm hurting and struggling right now, but I know there are people who can help me."

*"The most important thing *in the workshop* was how I could calm myself down by breathing exercises"*

"I enjoyed talking and listening with the people in this group. I felt comfortable"

*"The most important thing *in the workshop* was to be able to have our voices heard"*

When CH first met his mentor, CH had been out of work for a long time and wasn't sure where to start with getting a job. His mentor got to know CH and they discussed his skills and strengths, and agreed that a career in the rail industry would be something CH would like to investigate. CH was really enthusiastic at the thought of this, but a little anxious about the process. With some reassurance, CH was able to complete some Adult Learning courses in First Aid and COSSH. His tutor gave feedback stating that CH had engaged well and passed with ease. CH's mentor relayed this information to CH which CH said gave him a great boost of confidence. CH's mentor encouraged him to attend a jobs fair in Ely hub. During this, CH met the Onsite Construction Academy team who encouraged him to put his name down for a 'Get into PTS' course that was running soon with Vital Rail. CH was excited and really wanted to go onto the course as he believed this would be a great opportunity for him to complete the course and get into work. CH's mentor met with CH before the course to make sure he was ready and they also planned his travel to the training location together in Pontyclun. CH said that his family were excited for him doing the training and he was proud to say they had all contributed to buy him some safety equipment for his career. CH aced the training! He made such a good impression on the course that he was offered a job within the team and is currently working on the railways. CH has told his mentor that he is really happy and enjoying his job.

What's Next Award Celebration Event & What's Next Launch Event

"I did my work experience in Evershed Sutherland Law firm and I have like contemplating doing a law degree or like just going into law in general. But then I just thought, oh, it was a bit boring. But actually working in the office, getting to experience what it's like working in the law industry, it was just like, oh wow, this is something I definitely want to do.

"I did my work experience at PwC and honestly it was the most fun I've had in a while. We did a lot, we did a lot about ethical hacking and electronics as well and also seeing the environment of an office and how like it wasn't as quick as you might think it was. It was really useful to see and make me feel a bit calmer about my future processes.

What's Next Award Work Experience – Cardiff West

“Was such a great experience to have N with us from day 1 to today truly transformational he's like a new person I'm not sure I could even capture this progress in an email even if I had tried. N has some very high to medium needs however we fully embraced that and provided a week that met his needs and he learnt lots! He's actually now a young person accessing our services!!!! What an outcome!!

If I could nominate N for some sort of award please let me know how I can do this – this placement has gone far better than myself, N and school could have planned”

Cardiff Youth Services – Cardiff West ALN pupil N was placed with the youth worker.

By engaging Year 3 pupils in hands-on design activities, we not only supported their creativity and curiosity but also contributed to the new inquiry-based curriculum for Wales. It also allowed us to meet our social value outcomes by investing in education, promoting inclusivity, and enhancing community well-being through collaborative design." Sarah Wason, Rio Architects*

Testimonials

•St Vincent's Ely Bridge: "The centre has helped me a lot over the past few months. They have brought back my motivation and interest in training. Everyone there is super helpful, and it's a nice place to go, chill, and have tea or coffee, or just a chat."

•Welsh National Opera (WNO): "One older person used to play the harp and said that they thoroughly enjoyed the singing and music activities. The children and older people have formed friendships with one another, with children excited to visit the Care Centre."

•Lighthouse Young Eagles Club: "Great idea to help keep the children occupied. This project is exciting and different to the normal, playing games. Something for the children to look forward to, watching the plants getting bigger each week."

•Rubicon Dance: "My son who attends this session is quadriplegic, has cerebral palsy, is blind, is nonverbal and has daily epileptic seizures and really benefits from these sessions. I join in weekly along with my son's support staff and I must say that we enjoy them as much as the participants."

•Barnardo's Shared Prosperity Fund Service: "My son attended the camp 2 days a week over the summer. I work from home and if he wasn't at camp he would have been sat at home on an iPad all day. It was so nice for him to be trying different activities and socialising with friends instead! He loved the skateboarding in particular."

•Cardiff City FC Community Foundation: "I was delighted to have received an award in December for Most Transformed participant of the Men Changing Lives Group, which has helped me to reflect on my positive achievements in times of challenging emotions."

•Action in Caerau and Ely (ACE): "The sessions were successful in bringing together local parents, their children, teachers, Flying Start playworkers, and CAER project workers, and helped build trust and relationships with community members who often have significant barriers to engagement."
